Position summary

The Orange Door brings together different workforces and practices to create an integrated team and a consolidated intake point, to create a new way of support for:

- Women, children, young people, and families experiencing family violence.
- Perpetrators of family violence.
- Families in need of support with the care, development and well-being of infants, children, and young people.

The Orange Door is designed to make it easier for vulnerable families and children, victim survivors of family violence and perpetrators of family violence, to access services when and where they need them. The Orange Door will be a visible and trusted point in the community offering safe, simple, and early access to services and connect people to the support they need.

The Orange Door Practitioner will provide screening, identification, triage, assessment, and planning functions for clients of The Orange Door as part of an integrated team, with a focus on working with adult and child victim survivors.

Key responsibilities

1. Provide trauma informed and evidence-based responses to victim survivors and perpetrators of family violence, and to children, young people and families in need of support.
2. Respond to all police referrals, self-referrals and referrals from other community service or support organisations and provide a point for secondary consultation.
3. Undertake comprehensive risk assessment for all referrals and utilise a detailed safety plan to inform a short-term case plan.

4. Deliver screening and triage, assessment, crisis responses, service planning and targeted interventions consistent with the Integrated Practice Framework of the Orange Door.
5. Ensure access and advocacy for service users to relevant services such as cultural support, family violence related services, housing, income security, legal assistance, financial management, parenting support, children's support services and health issues.
6. Work collaboratively within a multidisciplinary and integrated team to assess risk and safety plan accordingly.
7. Follow direction and utilise the support from the Practice Leaders and Team Leaders within the Orange Door.
8. Adhere to all relevant frameworks, standards, policies and procedures of The Orange Door network.
9. Contribute to the review, development and implementation of systems, policies and procedures to build and enhance The Orange Door network.
10. Critically reflect on own practice and engage in individual and group supervision.
11. Provide supervision and support to students as required.
12. Other duties commensurate with current skills and experience as agreed with the Program Leader, Manager, General Manager or the Chief Executive Officer.
